BOWLERS HARD AT WORK.

CRACK WIELDERS OF THE WOODEN SPHERE TRAINING FOR THE HEBALD TOURNEY.

HE near approach of the commencement of the great HERALD bowling tournament of 1891 finds the crack wielders of the wooden sphere in active training for the opening games, which will be played at the Academy teenth street, next Monday night. The members of the Phoenix, Ivanhoe and Roseville teams, who will play in the initial contests, are practising daily, and the tourney will undoubtedly start out with a series of high scores. Interest centres largely in the contest for the individual average prize, which will be a handsome diamond medal, and many of the best of the bowlers already have turned covetous eyes in that direction. Each of the fifteen teams should furnish at least one prominent contestant for this trophy, and before the end of the tourney the individual fight will probably be productive of some scores

The book programme of the tournament will be The book programme of the tournament will be ready for distribution to-day. It will contain a complete copy of the rules and regulations adopted by the American Amateur Bowling Union last fall, which will govern the coming games. In addition to this the full schedule of the tourney will be printed, togother with a list of the competing teams and many facts of interest to the players.

The teams continue to send in lists of their members, only two now having failed to report. The crack Recreation club of Brooklyn will present the following team to do battle for the Herald prizes:—

Reserve.

The following are the names of the regulars and substitutes of the Phonix team:—

Vaupel, Price or Nichelson.

King.
Fielding.
Ferdinand.
Frice or Niebelson.
Friedmand.
Frice or Niebelson.

Niebers in the coming tourney is manifested among uptown bowlers. Each regular session of the many clubs that abound in that district is sure to bring forth some discussion as to the playing strength of the teams and the bowlers individually. Thus far they are unanimous that a finer lot of bowlers has never yet been selected to fight for honors and glory in any tournament. Where the two teams that hall from the upper part of this city—the Phonix and Now York bowling clubs—will finish is also a matter that is being thoroughly discussed. Afready much money has been bet that the Phonix club will finish to lower than third, and, in fact, some enthusiasts have wagered that they will win the race. This might be a little "too previous," but the team that this club presents should prove a stumbling block to many of their competitors. The playing atrength of the New Yorks will probably remain unknown until they step upon the alleys.

It might seem strange, but it is irue, that many of the fair sex that spent the leisure moments upon the alleys are backing their favorites to a large extent. Already I have witnessed several wagers of boxes of candy, parasols, gloves and other knicknacks by these fair bowlers.

Here are the opinions of some of the leading bowlers on the tournament:

Charles Shell, of the Junior:—"Although my team did not pet in, Ithink the tourney will furnish some excellent sport."

Secretary Hirsbhach, of the Frohsinns:—"A better tournament was never heard of. I will miss witnessing but rew games."

President Bothner, of the Imperials, says:—"Bowling would not be what it is to-day but for the New York Heraldo. Its approaching tourney will eclipse all others."

"Gus" Zimmerman, of the Nobles, says:—"Lovers of the sport ought to avail themselves of the opportunity the Heraldo is offering them."

Manager Beppler, of the Turn Verein, says:—
"The Heraldo is right in it."

THREE GIANTS COME TO TOWN.

Early morning trains landed three of New York's star ball players in town yesterday. Roger Con nor, James H. O'Rourke and "Dan ny" Richardson came to Gotham to talk business with Messrs. Day and Talcott relative to their signing League con-tracts for 1891. All of these players were at Mr. and factor relative to their signing lesses con-tracts for 1891. All of these players were at Mr. Talcott's office yesterday.

"Jim" O'Rourke was the spokesman for the tric. His sentiments are very maniy and commendable, and should be copied by every ball player who has the success of the national game at heart. He Said:

Yes, there must be harmony in the New York tsam. The public really demands it. I don't think there'il be any ill feeling between the eld Brotherhood men and those who remained with the League. Every man is liable to make mistakes, for which he should certainly be excused by his fellow men.

Personally I have no feeling of enmity against Glasseck and other League playors, nor do I think the other Brotherhood players have. We must all forget the past and pull tegether now for the good of the game. I am aiready training for the opening of the season and feel in tiptop shape.

Yes, Ward will have a great team in Brooklyn if he is allowed full control. The Brocklyns will give us a hard gift. But if we play together I have no fear as to the final outcome of the League race.

MANHATTAN MARKSMEN WIN.

The match shoot between the Manhaitan club, of this city, and the Secaucus club, of New Jersey, took place at Zettler's range, No. 331 Bowery, on Thursday evening. At times both teams shot well, but the fine manner in which the local marksmen handled their rides at critical moments won them the contest by 103 points. The target in use was of the twenty-five ring kind, and all scores were made from a possible total of 250 points. The result fellows:—

BACON GETS OPTIONS ON B. AND O. STOCK

But President Inman Says He Is Not a Party to It and Doesn't Know Who It's For.

RAILROADS TO POOL ALL DAMAGE SUITS.

Kansas Legislators Want to Punish Blonted Transportation Companies-Railway News Here and There.

President John H. Inman, of the Richmond Terminal company, made a statement yesterday tend ing a little to clear up the railroad situation, which has become a little mixed in some minds, principally because so many people interested in it are all talking at once and all saying conflicting things. The announcement has been made that Jay Gould has an option on the Baltimore and Ohio kailroad, and Mr. Inman has been quoted as authorizing the statement. Mr. Inman says:-

"I may as well say right off that I have no option on Baltimore and Ohio. Mr. Gould may have. If he has I know nothing of it. "About five-eighths of Baltimore and Ohio common stock, or about $8,000,000 out of the $14,000,000 is held in trust by the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company as trustees for E. R. Bacon, Robert Garrett & Sons and their associates. This stock was put in trust June 23, 1890, and the trust expires July 1, 1893. This stock holds the control of Baitimore and Ohio. Of this stock the Garretts own and the balance is held by Sage, Pittsburg people, myself and one or two others. "The fact is that E. R. Bacon has been securing an option on the purchase of this trust stock. He applied to me and I gave him the option on the stock I controlled. I do not know whether he is acting for Mr. Gould or not. It is true that Mr. Gould has been adding to his holdings of Richmond Terminal stock. He held at the time of the election 20,000 shares. Within the last three weeks he has probably increased his holdings to about 30,000 shares. General Thomas holds about 40,000 shares.

he has probably increased his holdings to about 20,000 shares. General Thomas holds about 40,000 shares.

"It is true that we have become more aggressive toward Pennsylvania, but this is because we want better facilities and better rates. We might have had them before if we had been more aggressive. It is true that Mr. Gould has been in conference with Pennsylvania officials. Mr. Frank Thomson rode over to Washington with Mr. Gould when we left for the South. I think the Pennsylvania is friendly disposed and will give us what we want. This subject, however, will come up next week when Mr. Gould gets here. He will be here by Saturday or Sunday, and, after taking a little rest, will feel better."

Mr. Bacon declines, of course, to say in whose interest he is securing options on the Baltimore and Ohio stock. Those who think he does not represent Jay Gould believe that he is deing it for the Garrett family. The stock is pooled anyhow, and probably could not be secured until the pool expires by limitation.

IS THE "WIZARD" SICK OR NOT? George Gould said yesterday that the reports of Jay Gould's sickness in the south were untrue. He received despatches from his father declaring that he was in good health. He should arrive here in time for breakfast this morning.
Addison Cammack received a telegram from St. Augustine, Fla., on Thursday night, saying that "G." was stricken with paralysis and had been carried into his car. Mr. Cammack did not recognize the initials at the end of the telegram.

THE COVINGTON AND MACON BOUGHT IN THE INTEREST OF AN ANTI-TERMINAL CROWD.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HEBALD.] ATHENS, Ga., Feb. 13, 1891.—A telegram was received here to-day from President Sparks, of the Georgia Southern and Florida Railroad, stating that arrangements had been made whereby the Covington and Macon road would be bought by the Georgia Southern and Fiorida. They will both be operated by the Seaboard and Roanoke, which also owns the Georgia, Carolina and Northern. This will form a great syndicate of railways to operate in competition with the Richmond Terminal in the South Atlantic States. A meeting of the bondhoiders of the Covington and Macon will be held in Baltimore to-morrow to confirm the deal.

A VAST ASSOCIATION TO TAKE CHARGE OF ALL CLAIMS AGAINST RAILROADS

IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE BERALD. I CHICAGO, Feb. 13, 1891,-The railroads of the United States are on the point of making a most radical departure in a legal way. In brief the plan is to turn over every claim or suit for damages against every road to an association organized for the purpose of settling such cases on their merits or fighting them to the court of last resort.

The proposed association will almost entirely supersede the claim and legal departments of the members of the organization. Railroad officials think the claim feature will be an especially value think the claim feature will be an especially valuable one. Under the present system many prominent shippers compel immediate settlement of claims without the least foundation, threatening a loss of patronage in the event of refusal. Under the new system the claim departments of the railroads will be abandoned and every claim will be referred to the association. The same course will be taken regarding all suits for damages, the association acting as attorney for each member. General Counsel Keep, of the Northwestern, will resign his present office and accept the chairmanship of the association, the headquarters of which will be in Chicago. The list of members is not ready for publication, as it is the intention to secure the membership of every railroad in America. All the prominent lines have joined and subscribed over $1,100,000 toward contingent expenses. The association already has a name and office in Chicago, but the name will probably be changed when Mr. Keep assumes the presidency.

GETTING LAKE AND RAIL RATES READY. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HEBALD.]

This year the Great Northern has agreed to maintain a higher basis, and if the lake lines can be held in check it is intended to make the basis about ninety cents, against seventy-one last year.

This enormous stock has weakened prices, and stove coal dropped ten cents during the past week and is now thirty-five cents below the circular prices. The companies are afraid that unless they take immediate-steps to curtail the production the trade will get beyond their control.

It is an omnibus bill and includes in the provisions of most of the other railroad bills that have been introduced.

Railroads are divided into three classes, the rates being scaled according to their earning power. The railroads are kindly allowed to appeal, but a deviation from the rates is met with a fine of $10,000 and forfeiture of charter.
